WRENTHAM was first settled in 1660 by settlers from Dedham and was then known by the Indian name of Wollomonopoag.

October 15, 1673, land was granted to the inhabitants of Wollomonopoag and the town was incorporated under the name of Wrentham.

The town was afterwards temporarily abandoned, and in the first volume of vital records it is recorded that on March 30, 1676, "ye Inhabittance ware drawn of by Rason of ye Indien warrs." The same record further states that in 1680 Rev. Mr. Man and divers inhabitants returned to Wrentham.

November 27, 1719, part of Wrentham was included in the new town of Bellingham.

March 2, 1778, part of Wrentham was established as the town of Franklin.

June 10, 1778, part of Wrentham was taken to form part of the town of Foxborough.

February 18, 1830, part of Attleborough was annexed to Wrentham.

February 7, 1831, part of Wrentham was annexed to Foxborough.

February 23, 1870, part of Wrentham was taken to form part of the town of Norfolk.

April 4, 1905, part of Wrentham was taken to form the town of Plainville.

EXPLANATIONS.

1. When places other than Wrentham or Massachusetts are named in the original records, they are given in the printed copy.

2. In all records the original spelling is followed.

3. The various spellings of a name should be examined, as items about the same family or individual may be found under different spellings.

4. Marriages are printed under the names of both parties. When a marriage appears that has its intention recorded it is designated with an asterisk. No record of intentions of marriage is to be found in Wrentham except between Feb. 15, 1826, and Feb. 18, 1843.

5. Additional information which does not appear in the original text of an item, i.e., any explanation, query, inference, or difference shown in other entries, is bracketed.

 BOSTON, U.S.A.

WRENTHAM was first settled in 1660 by settlers from Dedham and was then known by the Indian name of Wollomonopoag.

October 15, 1673, land was granted to the inhabitants of Wollomonopoag and the town was incorporated under the name of Wrentham.

The town was afterwards temporarily abandoned, and in the first volume of vital records it is recorded that on March 30, 1676, "ye Inhabitance ware drawn of by Rason of ye Indien warrs." The same record further states that in 1680 Rev. Mr. Man and divers inhabitants returned to Wrentham.

November 27, 1719, part of Wrentham was included in the new town of Bellingham.

March 2, 1778, part of Wrentham was established as the town of Franklin.

June 10, 1778, part of Wrentham was taken to form part of the town of Foxborough.

February 18, 1830, part of Attleborough was annexed to Wrentham.

February 7, 1831, part of Wrentham was annexed to Foxborough.

February 23, 1870, part of Wrentham was taken to form part of the town of Norfolk.

April 4, 1905, part of Wrentham was taken to form the town of Plainville.

EXPLANATIONS.

1. When places other than Wrentham or Massachusetts are named in the original records, they are given in the printed copy.

2. In all records the original spelling is followed.

3. The various spellings of a name should be examined, as items about the same family or individual may be found under different spellings.

4. Marriages are printed under the names of both parties. When a marriage appears that has its intention recorded it is designated with an asterisk. No record of intentions of marriage is to be found in Wrentham except between Feb. 15, 1826, and Feb. 18, 1843.

5. Additional information which does not appear in the original text of an item, i.e., any explanation, query, inference, or difference shown in other entries, is bracketed.
